

- The home page will have slider images, header and footer (common for all the pages). Standard information like - about service, company credibility etc. will be available as per the demand. Social media page integration and WhatsApp/call/chat button to be added as per the requirements. Live prices for Bitcoin and USDT will be available in Naira and Pound.
- The user will have to create a profile on the platform with the email address. The user profile will have the option to add multiple bank account details and Bitcoin and USDT wallet details for buy or sell purposes. Standard information like password change and transaction history is available under the user profile. Email verification is required to activate the account.
- Buy Bitcoin or USDT – Select the crypto that the user wants to buy and select the fiat currency through which the user wants to pay. Enter the crypto figure user wants to buy and show the result how much fiat to be paid OR enter the fiat figure that the user wants to pay and show the result how much crypto will be available for the entered figure. Select the wallet address to which the user wishes to get the crypto. Display the bank account details to pay and the user makes the transaction and uploads the receipt. Release the crypto after verifying the transaction and upload the status from the admin.
- Sell Bitcoin or USDT – Select the crypto that the user wants to sell and select the fiat that which user needs to get paid. Enter the crypto figure user want to sell and shows the result of how much fiat is to be received OR enter the fiat figure that the user wants to get and show the result of how much crypto is to be paid for the entered figure. Select the bank account details to where the amount is to be credited. Make the crypto transaction to the given wallet address and the fiat amount will be deposited to the bank account after verifying the transaction. The status will be uploaded accordingly from the admin
- Admin will have the option to enter the buying and selling amount and offer prices based on the quantity of buy and sell.
- Admin will have the power to assign admin users with certain features and add/edit/delete all the dynamic content on the website
- Other dynamic pages like FAQ, privacy policy, terms and conditions, and contact us are available